If you choose to select a minor child as a beneficiary, the plan won't pay funds directly to minors and benefits will instead be paid to the minor's financial guardian. If you haven't created a trust or financial guardian arrangements, this may result in potential delays and additional costs. For further information, please contact an estate attorney or utilize the Estate Planning benefit, if enrolled.

The Basic Life Insurance beneficiary designations will also be used for any unvested Restricted Stock Units (RSUs).
